Public Comment:
There was no public comment.

3. Business: Items for Action:

A. Consideration of Actions Due to COVID-19 Cases.

Superintendent Bob Moore talked about the situation here at the district and the possibility of a school closure. Bob told the Board and the audience the district had another positive case that affected the cleaning crew here at the district. Bob told the Board there would be no one here to clean the buildings until they come out of quarantine. After comments from the Board, Connie Johnson, and the audience on how many staff and students have been affected by the new positive case, if the district will be providing breakfast and lunch, how the closure affects the younger students and if there will be any activities during the closure, Sarah Armijo made a motion to go to distance learning for all grades and to suspending all school activities until November 17, 2020 and to return to in class instruction and school activities on November 18, 2020. Michelle Fauth seconded the motion. All voted aye.
